VOL. XXXV.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1907.

NO. 74.

KINGSVILLE.

Thompson & Evans' planing mill is running daily, early and late.

The interior of Daniel Hester's store is a "thing of beauty." He has put in a nice, new line of fancy and staple groceries and in addition will sell soft drinks to a thirsty public.

Mrs. Green Skidmore died Monday night after a brief illness. She is survived by her husband and several small children, who have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement. Mrs. Skidmore was a good woman in every respect.

Rev. W. G. Bradford, of the M. E. church, favored a large audience at the Christian church Sunday evening with one of the finest sermons ever delivered here or, we are tempted to say, elsewhere. His text was from the Third Chapter of St. John: "God so Loved the World;" and his sermon was beautifully delivered. Mr. Bradford is an excellent English scholar, was educated in Boston and given the advantages of several years' study in Europe, and while he is quite assuring in manner he is pleasantly devoid of egotism. He might have been a professor in one of several of the universities but for an affliction, being deficient in hearing. He has, however, accepted a call from the Bishop to fill a pulpit in Kansas City and will leave for that city within the next few days, much to the regret of his friends here.

Mrs. Edmund Murphy has returned home after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Eva Dishon, at Sloan's Valley, Tenn., and relatives at Somerset. Miss Nan-nie S. Dunn is visiting Mrs. Cora Beagle at Petal, Miss. Mrs. Morris Walls spent a few days in Waynesburg. Virgil Bastin and wife have returned from a visit to Cincinnati and are now the guests of his mother at Science Hill. Mr. Girdler, of Somerset, was here Monday. Wm. Dye came home from Tennessee to spend Sunday with his family. Mrs. Alonzo Rigney has returned to Floyd. F. S. Gooch, of Waynesburg, was here Sunday. Deputy Sheriff Hester was here Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Ed Carey, who has been very ill, has about recovered, we are glad to state. D. B. Fox, of Bowen, was the guest of his friend, James Engleman, day operator at the tower.

HUBBLE.

James Robinson sold some cattle to Pony Beazley at 4c. Luther Underwood, Kinnaird Bourne and W. H. Underwood sold some hogs to Wm. Lawson at 5c.

Mr. Steve Owsley, of Hazel Patch, has been visiting relatives here. Grover McKechnie, of Lexington, spent Sunday with his homefolks. Mrs. C. C. Sink and son, of Lexington, are with Mrs. A. C. Carman. Mrs. M. G. McClure, of Mintonville, and Mr. Virgil McClure, of Lexington, were guests of Mrs. J. A. Hammond this week. Miss Gertrude Long, of Stanford, is visiting Miss Sallie Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McKechnie and son, of Monticello, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McKechnie. Mr. Jack Yeakey has rented out his home and will go to Louisville to reside. Mr. Huffman, aged 100 years is with his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Anderson.

Biliousness And Constipation.

"For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been to-day had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally."—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by all druggists.

The decrease of 18,600 in the number of pensioners at the end of the fiscal year, 1907, as compared with the year previous, is the feature of the annual report of Pension Commissioner Warner, just issued. This is the greatest decrease in the history of the pension bureau.

A Good Liniment.

When you need a good, reliable liniment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings. A piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for lame back or pains in the side or chest. It also relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale by all Druggists.

The passenger elevator in the McKinley Hotel at Canton, O., dropped four stories and three persons received probably fatal injuries.

Chapped hands are quickly cured by applying Chamberlain's Salve. Price 25c. For sale by all druggists.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. J. W. Fitch, aged 67, is dead at Millersburg.

This country is said to spend $350,000,000 a year for tobacco and $5,000,000 for missions.

Service at the Presbyterian church at 10:45 o'clock Sunday morning. Subject: "Does God Send Trouble?"

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will meet with Miss Alice Beazley Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Rev. J. L. Yandell will preach at Hall's Gap Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend.

All over Kentucky and the South the movement to raise the salaries of preachers is having fine effect; 27 preachers in this State have been raised $100, $200 or $300. In the recent great strike it was developed that in 12 trades the workmen received $122 per month; the preachers in Kentucky average $62 50 a month.

The protracted meeting at the Methodist church has been fairly well attended this week. The open session of the Women's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies was quite a success. Audience good, program well rendered, excellent singing and from reports much good was done. Prof. Ireland has charge of the music through the meeting. The meeting is truly a union one. Rev. Barker, the pastor, announces that he will have Revs. Taylor and Yandell preach some next week. He also insists on all the singers of all the churches taking part in the song service. A new song book will be introduced tonight—Young People's Hymnal No. 3. It is said to be a very fine selection of revival songs.

THE PASTOR.

A Frankfort dispatch to the Courier-Journal says that the Republicans are planning to start an evening daily here. We know nothing about it, but trust they will do it. We know of no way that they can get rid of their surplus cash so quickly and so certainly. An experience of three years has convinced us that there is very small pickings for one daily here. The grazing for two would be so short that one would have to soon go the way of most papers started to fill an imaginary want. By all means, start a paper. The more the merrier, but not the most profitable.—Frankfort Journal.

When the stomach, heart or kidney nerves get weak, then these organs always fail. Don't drug the stomach, nor stimulate the heart or kidneys. That is simply a makeshift. Get a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's restorative. The restorative is prepared expressly for these weak inside nerves. Strengthen these nerves, build them up with Dr. Shoop's restorative—tablets or liquid—and see how quickly help will come. Free sample test sent on request by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Your health is surely worth this simple test. Penny's Drug Store.

The local money market felt the effect of Tuesday's mayoralty election, when half a million dollars that had been wagered began to circulate, says a Cleveland dispatch. Much of this money has been tied up for several weeks.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proven to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough.—Rev. Jas. A. Lewis, pastor Milaca, Minn., M. E. church. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is sold by all Druggists.

"In God We Trust" has been stricken from the coins of the United States. Teddy will have no one before him. Like the Emperor of Germany he evidently thinks that the proper expression is: "Me and God."—Frankfort Journal.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c. at penny's Drug Store.

Estimates of appropriations aggregating $23,461,911 are made by Gen. Alexander Mackenzie, chief of engineers of the army, for fortification work during the fiscal year 1909.

This Is Worth Remembering.

As no one is immune, every person should remember that Foley's Kidney Cure will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine.

NEWS NOTES.

Earl Ruddell, of Columbus, Ind., had his neck broken in a game of foot ball. From two to five inches of snow fell in the mountains of West Virginia near Huntington Tuesday.

The entire business portion of Worland, Wyo., was destroyed by a fire which started in a grocery store. The loss will exceed $100,000.

George W. Ewell, of Deer Lodge, Tenn., committed suicide in Washington by shooting himself while riding in a cab.

J. B. Cunningham, principal of the Birmingham High school, and one of the best known educators in Alabama, is dead.

In a fight with knives in McCracken county, George Jones was probably fatally wounded and Richard Yeltman was badly cut.

Michael Hubbard, of Louisville, was killed in a freight wreck at West Point while on his way to Paducah to attend the burial of his mother.

Three persons were burned, one probably fatally, in a fire at Columbus, O. A cigarette carelessly dropped in a pile of rubbish started the blaze.

Large reductions in working forces in Chicago have been made within the last few days, owing directly to scarcity of orders and business depression.

The National City Bank of New York has canceled a $1,000,000 gold engagement in London because it is believed enough has been secured to meet the situation.

Two thousand two hundred employees of shoe factories at Marlboro, Mass., have been placed on half time, owing to market conditions and uncertainty regarding the future.

An engineer on the C. & O. was compelled to run his engine 12 miles after being told that his wife had dropped dead. His name is Roger Chalkley and his home is Covington.

Mrs. Charlotte Phillips was freed from the charge of killing her husband, John J. Phillips, coal operator and broker, at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing at Cleveland, O.

The rainstorms and floods throughout Italy continue. Railroad tracks are being carried away in several places, and reports are being received of the destruction of houses. Several lives have been lost.

Badly mutilated and bearing marks showing that he had been shot repeatedly and terribly beaten, the body of William Cline, a prominent citizen of Bolivar, Pa., was found in a field a short distance from that town.

A long line of applicants for entry of the Alabama public lands recently thrown open filled the office of the Land Register at Montgomery. In all about 10,000 acres were taken up. These lands were formerly classed mineral, but were recently found to be available under new rules for homestead.

The Sunday-closing laws were enforced in extreme fashion at Nashville by order of Mayor Brown, who threatened the police force with dismissal if it failed to comply. 25 arrests were made, including a wholesale merchant, who was found in his office reading mail. Bootblacks were put out of business. Only soda fountains and cigar stands were allowed to remain open.

Albert Bates was sentenced at Chipewa Falls, Wis., to serve one year in the penitentiary for bigamy. He acknowledged that he had been married often, but thought he had always waited long enough for the preceding wife to get a divorce before he married the next one. He did not inquire about the divorce, but took it for granted that one would be obtained. A sister-in-law, with whom he eloped, was the latest venture in matrimony undertaken by Bates.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses: Great alterative and body builder; sure cure for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store, 50c.

By a unanimous vote, the Supreme court of Mississippi held that the expression, "go to h—l," is not profanity. The case was that of Rosa Stafford, a 12-year-old Negro girl, who was convicted in the lower court at Corinth of violating the statute against profanity.

We have secured the agency for Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup, the new laxative that makes the liver lively purifies the breath, cures headache and regulates the digestive organs. Cures chronic constipation. Ask us about it. G. L. Penny.

HUSTONVILLE.

Sam Leeper has rented his farm for the coming year to Wm. Wade.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter VanArsdale, of Boyle, spent Sunday with relatives and friends here.

Service on rural route from Moreland to Stanford, returning by here has been ordered established on Dec. 2 and will be served by C. K. McClure.

D. C. Allen and E. McCormack shipped one car of butcher cattle to Cincinnati Saturday for which they paid 24 to 3c. Also one car of 300-pound hogs at 4c.

A seven-months-old son of Robert Keith, who works for the Hustonville Roller Mill Co., died suddenly Monday and was buried at Gilpin, Casey county, Tuesday.

Don't neglect having all things in readiness for the entertainment at Alcorn's Opera House on the evening of Nov. 27th. For further particulars see hand bills.

Thanksgiving preparations will commence here in earnest this week and Tom Gooch, the veteran turkey driver, will collect his first installment, so have them ready.

President F. P. Combest and Cashier George A. Prewitt, of the Commercial Bank of Liberty, were guests of W. G. Cowan. Quite a number of our young people attended the rendition of the "Union Depot" at Liberty Friday evening. They enjoyed the performance very much.

Sam Leeper and wife, who have been living at Southport, Ind., for some time, are here visiting. Grant North, who was appointed clerk in the postoffice at Danville by heading the civil service eligible list, has resigned. He was not able to rent a house at a price he could afford to pay.

At 17 years of age Hardin Walls, formerly of Casey and Lincoln counties, went to Illinois in 1881. He having been in bad health for some months, died on Nov. 1st and was buried in Union Ridge Cemetery, White county, Ill. He leaves a wife and eight children and an insurance policy of $1,000. Jacob Walls, of the Richards School House section, is his brother. He has many friends throughout this section who will be grieved to learn of his death.

A petition to the fiscal court is being numerous signed asking that body for a small appropriation for the purpose of putting gravel on the stone recently put on the Hustonville and McKinney pike. Ninety-five per cent. of the travel on this pike is done with horse and buggy and half of those are driven by ladies and the stone (supposed to be crushed) is so large that it makes travel miserable as well as dangerous, and will always be in this condition unless covered with gravel.

Two physicians, who have been attending Rev. C. W. F. Daniels for some time, notified him that he should go to a dryer climate very soon. His resignation was handed the officers of his church on Sunday last and he will leave with his family about Dec. 1 for California, much to the regret of his numerous friends here. They hope, however, that what is their loss may be his gain and the prayers of his congregation for him and his beloved family and the prayers of other congregations here as well as elsewhere will plead with the Master for his recovery and return.

James R. Keene tells this story illustrative of "high finance."

A Kentucky dandy negotiated a loan of $10 from a local banker, pledging his mule and cart as security.

"Money is pretty tight," explained the banker, "and I shall have to charge you $2.50 now for the use of the $10 for a month."

The dandy consented, signing the papers and half an hour later was found by a friend standing in the road scratching his wool with one hand and looking ruefully at the $7.50 in the other.

"What's the matter, Sam?" asked his friend.

"Oh, dere ain't nuthin' de matter 'cept I knows I'se right. Dat bank man he done charge me $2.50 for $10 for a month. I'se right, sub; fo' if I had ast fo' de $10 fo' foah months I wouldn't a got nuthin'."

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

John Wilson and Hugh Hughes were run over and killed by a train in Warren county. Both were drinking.
